Interesting. I will check with our Zoning Administrator and get back to you. Thanks.

Ms. Kelly

Thank you for all the information you have provided us regarding the address at 415 West Armitage, Chicago, Illinois. As part of our pre-application inspection, we routinely drive past the proposed premises address to verify location and suitability. I took photos of the building, particularly of a sign posted on the building, advertising commercial space for lease. I have attached a couple of the photos.

You advised my supervisor Nick Scouffas on 8/24/2010 that Chicago's zoning department verified this address to be zoned as completely residential. I thought you might be interested in how it is being advertised for lease.
